Frosh Circulate Nominations For Student Senate

Nominations Due Oct. 5; Frosh to Cast Final Ballot Friday

Petitions to nominate a freshman man and woman to the Student Senate are now being circulated and must be turned in to Johnny Clay, Senate president, or Bob Bricker, senator in charge of nominations, by 10 a.m. Monday, Oct. 5. One-sixth of the total class enrollment or 48 names is necessary to complete a petition. Each student may sign his name supporting only one man senator and one woman senator petition.

Primary Election

Primary elections will be held on Tuesday, Oct. 6, when the nominees will be reduced to two men and two women for the final election Friday, Oct. 9. Ballots are cast in the Senate room in Kauke hall. Two more freshman senators will be elected in December to fill a total of four freshman chairs.

The Student Senate is a powerful organization on the Wooster campus, composed of fourteen representatives of the student body, two men and two women representing each class. Each senator holds office one year, and elections are held twice a year in order to have a new representation each semester. One of the senior senators is elected president by vote of the student body.

Senate Activities

The tasks of this organization seem at times unlimited. To coordinate all student activity, to establish a balanced calendar for annual activities, to act as mediator for the student body and faculty, to maintain a varied and active social life, to preside over student elections, and, finally to create a spirit of democratic organization are only a few of the many and varied duties of the Student Senate.

Dr. Lean Selects Staffs and Cast Of October Play

The cast for the Homecoming play "Pure as the Driven Snow" to be presented Oct. 21, 22, and 24, has been revised as follows:

The production staff for the Homecoming play has been appointed by Dr. Delbert G. Lean, the director, and Herbert Rogers, president of Kappa Theta Gamma. Horace Dutton will be stage manager. The business and publicity committee will be headed by Herbert Rogers and composed of Dick Shreffler, Virginia Miller, and Clarice Miraldi.

The electricians are David Lanning, chairman, Robert Sweetland, Thomas Strickler, Fred Stead and Wilbur Lyon; and the stage crew will be made up of Max Napp, David Neely, Ernest Muller, Larry Gabriel, Joe Lane, Bette Cleveland, and Marjory Lloyd.

M.S.G.A. Sets Date For Kenarden Sing

The M.S.G.A. has set a tentative date for the Inter-section sing which it will sponsor. Further plans were discussed at their meeting last Tuesday, Sept. 29.

The date which was set and which is as yet tentative is the evening of Dec. 5.

Tickets for this event are expected to be cut shortly and there is already evidence of preparation by some of the sections. Ninth Section stole the march on the rest of the sections with its serenade last week-end. Kenarden on some nights sounds as if the boys are preparing for a serenade.

A good name is still lacking for this coming event. A box will be placed in Kauke to receive the suggestions of the girls for a name for this song contest. This will be conducted on a contest basis and the winners will be announced in the near future.

New Conservatory of Music Will Be Dedicated Honoring Karl Merz During Homecoming Ceremonies, October 25

Pictured is the new Conservatory of Music which will be formally dedicated in honor of Karl Merz, a part of the Homecoming ceremonies Saturday, Oct. 25. Karl Merz was the first director of Wooster's Conservatory.

Prior to its acquisition by the college last year the new Karl Merz hall was known as the Overholt residence.

Musical selections by the choir, glee club and orchestra will be featured on the program of the dedication concert to be held in the chapel at 4 p.m. Friday, Oct. 23.

Business College To Sponsor Shorthand Course On Campus

A class in shorthand will be offered by the Wooster Business college on the Wooster college campus. This class will start on Oct. 12 and will run for the remaining part of the present semester and all of the next semester.

The course will be divided into two divisions. The first half will be devoted to the theory of shorthand and the second half to a course in advanced shorthand. By the end of the second course the students will be taking dictation at a speed of 110 words per minute. This speed is standard for work in the business field.

The class will meet on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday from 4:30 to 5:30 in some room still to be selected on the campus.

A series of conference times have been set up to acquaint the students interested with the details of this course. Mr. Dunn of the business college will be in Room 210 of Kauke hall on Friday, Oct. 2, and on Monday and Tuesday, Oct. 5 and 6, from 4 until 5 to answer any questions concerning the course.

Senate Holds Dance And Organizes Date Bureau For Trainees

The Senate will sponsor a vic dance this Saturday night from 8 to 11 in Babcock hall. The financial report of last Saturday's band dance as given by Senate treasurer Bob Lessing is as follows: cost of band, $95; gym rental fee $11; federal tax $9; labor and miscellany $8; giving a total cost of $123. The costs subtracted from the receipts of $98 leaves the Senate with a net loss of approximately $25.

Vic Day and his orchestra will return to the campus to play for the all-college dance on High School Day, Oct. 10. He has added a trumpet player to his outfit and should present a smoother band than appeared on Sept. 26. All high school students who are able to stay are invited to attend the dance free of charge.

The Senate date bureau for the army and navy trainees has been organized and it is hoped that it will be utilized this week-end. Trainees wishing dates should contact George Hackett in Kenarden I as far in advance as possible. Hackett will be assisted by a girl representative in one of the upperclass dorms.

Songs, Games to Make Up Program of French Club During Babcock Meeting

The next meeting of the French club will be held Tuesday, Oct. 13 and the program will include French songs and games. The meetings are held twice a month, on the second and fourth Tuesday in lower Babcock. The officers for the coming year are Edith Wheelock, president; Clarice Miraldi, acting vice-president; Ruth Allen, secretary; and Ruth Rawson, treasurer. Miss Ihrig is the faculty counsellor. The last meeting was on Sept. 22 at which time the new members were initiated. Any upper classmen who have had French and any one else with the equivalent of two semesters work with a B average or better is welcome.

Class of '47 Will Visit Campus on Saturday, Oct. 10

High School Day at Wooster this year will be held on Saturday, Oct. 10, 1942, with the purpose of acquainting prospective students with college surroundings and enabling them to compete for the ten $400 scholarship prizes.

The program for the morning consists of registration; student-led campus tour; and open house in the departments of science, speech, and art. Following this will be the scholarship prize examinations and then assembly with a musical program and greetings from President Wishart.

In the afternoon, open house will be held in the dormitories and then the students will see the football game with Heidelberg. In the evening the visiting students will be the guests of the Student Senate at an all-college dance in Severance gym.

The scholarships are open to all high school juniors and seniors. Students are required to take two 45-minute examinations. The first of these is a standardized test of reading comprehension. The second will be selected from a number of various fields. The ten students from the entire group who make the highest combined scores and who qualify for admission will receive honor scholarships of $100 each year they are in college providing they maintain a "B" average and comply with the rules of the college.

Miss Arick Will Speak In Chapel

Miss Ola Arick, county visitor representing Wayne County bureau of aid to the dependent children, will be the speaker for the WSGA Tuesday, Oct. 6, in women's chapel.

In accordance with the policy of the WSGA which presents women who have made a place for themselves in various professions, Miss Arick will tell some of the qualifications and requirements for her job, as well as her own experiences.

Classes Suspended For Joint Service Men's Conference

Classes will be suspended from 9 to 3:30 Wednesday, Nov. 4 so that the college men may attend conferences conducted by a joint Army-Navy-Marine Corps-Coast Guard procurement board.

A general conference for men will be held in Scott auditorium from 9 to 11. Then sectional conferences will be conducted by the members of the board. Attendance will be required of all men.

Plans are under way for a vocational program for women, dealing with vocations which have a direct war angle. An attempt is being made to secure a representative from the WAACS and from the WAVES.

These conferences will cooperate with a national attempt to inform all college students how they may best fit themselves for a specific part in the national war effort.

M.I.T. Admissions Director Confers With Candidates

Mr. B. A. Thresher, Director of Admissions of M.I.T., will be on the campus Thursday evening, Oct. 8 and Friday morning, Oct. 9 to confer with students interested in the Cooperative plan that Wooster has with M.I.T., whereby a high-grade student may pursue a combined five year course.

Under this plan the first three years are spent at Wooster and the last two at M.I.T. with a possible intermediate summer term. When completed, this combined course leads to a B.A. degree from Wooster and a B.S. degree from the Institute. More detailed information can be found in the catalogue.

A group conference will be held in Kenarden lounge Thursday evening and individual conferences may be arranged for Friday morning. Appointments should be made through Miss Hole at the Placement office.

Sec'y of War Tells College A. E. R. C. To Continue Studies

The Secretary of War, in response to requests for further elaboration of his statement of Sept. 10 to the effect that all or nearly all members of the Army Enlisted Reserve Corps in colleges will probably be called to active duty soon after reaching the age at which other young men are called under Selective Service, has said:

"Until called they can and should proceed with their studies. You will note I have pointed out that the army will determine what further training is required by those who are called, to best qualify them for military duty. For this training the War Department will adopt such methods and utilize such facilities of its own or of the colleges as are deemed best suited to meet military requirements as they then exist. The intervening time will afford a period of adjustment, and for the formulation of plans for such additional specific training as the army may then deem to be required. These plans, including probable modification of the college ROTC courses, are in the course of formulation."

The statements of the Secretary of War do not apply to the Naval Reserve programs in colleges. It has been ascertained from the Navy department that no immediate changes are at present contemplated in any of these programs, nor in the Naval ROTC.

Sophomores Will Roast Hot Dogs At Park Friday

The sophomore class will hold a class weiner roast at City Park Friday evening, Oct. 8, at 8. It is not to be a "couple picnic", but strictly "every man for himself".

At a meeting held on Tuesday, Sept. 29, presided over by President Hank Rutledge, the sophomores voted to have dues of $.50 per person. The weiner roast will probably be financed from this fund.

The social committee, working in collaboration with the class officers to put on the picnic, is Marion Saunders, chairman; Ruth Coover, Bill Benson, and Ted Ferguson. Sophomore class officers are: Hank Rutledge, president; Mary Jane West, vice-president; Pat Kline, secretary; and Ned Shreffler, treasurer.

Librarians Transfer Pamphlets to Union

Due to the congestion on all three floors of the "lib", several stacks of the bound government pamphlets owned by the library have been moved to the Student Union building. The part underneath the music room has been fitted with steel racks, and this little-used material has been placed there. This change has necessitated the moving of almost all the books in the back of the library, so the location of the books, has been changed farther down the stacks.

Big Four Solicits Student Pledges For $1,750 Goal

There will be a meeting of all members of the business and editorial staffs of the Voice in the Voice office Saturday, Oct. 3 at 10:30. Plans will be discussed for the coming subscription drive and assignments will be made for next week's paper.

Registrar's Office Announces First December Grads

The registrar's office announces that 45 students are candidates for the completion of degree requirements in December 1942, since under the accelerated war program they have completed a summer semester of work. Under ordinary conditions these students would be among the June graduates.

Freshman Debators To Choose Officers And Organize Club

Freshmen interested in debate met at a preliminary meeting of the debate and discussion group on Monday, Sept. 29, in Taylor hall. At this meeting, the work of the club and its programs were explained to the new students.

The next meeting will be held Monday, Oct. 5 at 7 p.m. in room 6 of Taylor hall. At that time, the club will be organized and officers for the semester will be elected.

Debate questions for the year have not yet been chosen. Members of the debate seminar group are working on six or seven questions, and these will be submitted at a conference in Cleveland of a number of schools. In the selection each school chooses a question and after a process of elimination the debate themes are decided upon.

The national question is selected by a special national committee; all debate groups are notified when the choice is made.

First Lady's Planned Visit Depends on Success Of 1942 Drive

The Big Four drive to reach its goal of $1750 got under way this week with the distribution of pledge cards to the student body and faculty. There has been some response already from the faculty and chairman Bill Lytle expressed the hope that the drive would continue to progress as well as it has started.

The Big Four is making an effort to bring to this campus Mrs. Roosevelt as a guest speaker. This will only be possible through the cooperation of the students in making the drive a success. Otherwise said Big Four Prexy Bob Moreland, "The Big Four will be forced to cut from its budget all guest speakers such as the planned visit of Mrs. Roosevelt."

McCorkle's Letter
The main item on the budget is the maintenance of a representative in India. A letter was received yesterday from Roy McCorkle, '33, who was at one time our representative at the Ewing Christian college in Allahabad, India. Roy is, at the present time, working at the Swarthmore Cooperative Association in Pennsylvania.

In his letter he adds his voice in the support of this campaign:

Broader Contacts
"The Big Four has always called our attention to the wider world of nations, of peoples, and of living issues. It has enlivened our interest in the Far East by giving us a living contact with India. The Big Four has exposed some of us to the wider world and has helped us to see that provincialism and isolationism are remnants of a dying past."

"The tragic events of today's world confirm the essential rightness of the Big Four's program. The least we can do is to strengthen and support it—financially, and with our lives."

Roy McCorkle, '33
In chapel yesterday, the Big Four sponsored a speaker on behalf of the present drive as it has in past years. The speaker yesterday was Arthur Romig, a missionary returned from China who spoke on the need of such a representative as we are sponsoring. He has just returned from the (Continued on Page 4)

Corporation Elects Officers; Considers Business Problems

At the last meeting of THE Corporation held Wednesday, Sept. 23, the following officers were elected: president, Robert Kerr; vice-president, Philip Bramley; secretary, Jean Emery; treasurer, Scott Leonard. According to the club constitution, meetings are to be held the first and third Wednesdays of every month.

At the meeting, plans for the coming club year were discussed. If possible, speakers will be secured among local business men, and problems confronting industrial plants today will be taken up. The club also hopes to get some movies on the subject of economics. Discussions will be held at each meeting. Dues are paid in the form of stock. Professors Tostlebe and Eberhart are the faculty advisors.

Art Department Exhibits Czernianski's Paintings Of Invaded Countries

An art exhibit circulated by Blanche Byerly will open here at Wooster on Nov. 1, and will continue until Nov. 25.

It is an exhibit of water color drawings by the artist Zdzislaw Czernianski, made during his journey through the invaded European countries in the early days of the European war. Captain Czernianski, in his sketches, has depicted scenes of Copenhagen, Stockholm, Rotterdam, Oslo, Brussels, Paris in the spring of 1940, Vichy and numerous other cities of war fame.

Later there will also be an exhibition of art work done by the students in the departments thus far. The date of this exhibit has not been decided upon definitely.

The addition of more paintings to the lending library has also been announced.

Pictured above are the 20 future Army and Navy fliers taking ground school and flight training here at Wooster. The ground course of 240 hours concentrated into 8 weeks is being taught by the college. The geology, physics and math departments are carrying this extra work, including evening classes, while continuing with regular college classes. The ten trainees of the Naval CPT branch, in the front row, read-

The college students at Wooster are called upon to make very few sacrifices. So, can't we at least give a few dollars to the Big Four drive!

By openly and intelligently criticising and attempting improvement, we are more in a position to control our local dissatisfactions and unrests. This leads to the thought that with control of campus disintegrating tendencies, we are more in a position to take our share of national duties.

Co-ed—I heard you the first time. I was trying to think.

However a round of applause is due

Sincerely yours,
Herb Rogers

During this past week all of the underclassmen and faculty pictures have been taken for the Index. The separate pictures of the faculty and the small groups of the students add up to nearly two hundred pictures. Naturally this was a time of much hurrying and great confusion.

Sincerely yours,
Marie Thede

However, if it is the honest judgment of the War department that to carry voting polls to the soldiers would hinder our war effort and prolong the struggle, we must honor their decision. Slowly and painfully the awareness is coming to us that there are certain things we cherish which cannot be continued during wartime. In the meantime we can be thankful that the folks at home still have the right to register their approval or disapproval of the way our leaders are acting. As long as this privilege is maintained somewhere, Johnny Doughboy can be reasonably assured that he is fighting for a little more than just empire.

By DORIS CULLEY

The moment of required silence filters into the same old din,—I gaze wildly around, suddenly realizing that I have again failed to knock enough people aside as I plowed in; and, as a result am left stranded, to sit a head-table.

Trying to plaster on what I fervently hoped would pass for a pleasant smile, I make my reluctant way over to that place from which a traveler may return—but won't for a long time.

I Edge Into My Seat.
I edge into my seat, primly placing my napkin in the exact center of my lap, and fiddle with my glass of water—desperately trying to mark time before that deadly quiet in the room is interspersed with valiant little stabs at conversation such as, “Well, how did everyone like chapel this morning?” or “et cetera, etc”—will inevitably take its toll in H. T. B. (head-table boredom, to you!).

Gradually the various installments of food begin to filter by. By the time that the rest of the room is gulping their second sandwich, I am trying to compute mathematically just exactly how many times I shall have to chew each bite of my first one so as to finish, at the worst, only five minutes ahead of everybody else at the table.

Naturally I fail, and to fill in the intervals between courses I busy myself by drinking an amazing amount of water from a glass that is "refueled" systematically by an attentive waiter.

Other Tables Finish

One by one the other tables finish and leave the room with a careful noisiness that merely serves to add to my sufferings. Finally the room is cleared just as our sliced peaches and crackers arrive. At this point even the braver souls have given up all the noble attempts at conversation and have fallen into the same trance-like coma that the rest of us are in.

The last straw is added when—I eventually stagger into the hall—I find that my entire gang has been less despatched than I and has gone to the Shack.

THE TIP-OFF

By BOB AUGUST
Voice Sports Editor

The classic report of a baseball scout on a minor league ball player was the four brief words, "good field, no hit" and in the same terse manner the showing of Wooster in their first football game of the season might be summed up as, "good defense, no offense."

Our running game just couldn't get moving against the stout Carroll defense, while our forward passes, in the first part of the game especially, too often found their way into the hands of the Blue Streaks backs. One ray of sunshine for Scot hopes lies in the fact that Carroll is regarded as a very strong defensive team and possibly our offense will work better against the outfits not so strongly grounded defensively.

Coach Conley of Carroll came up with a big surprise in his unorthodox use of the T-formation, but its efficiency was greatly reduced by a good Wooster line. In fact Carroll's running game seemed pretty well under control throughout; it was their passing attack that really paved the way to the only touchdown of the ball game.

It seems very likely that Coach Swigart will be brushing up the running attack and the pass defense this week in preparation for the trip to Wittenberg on Saturday. Wittenberg will be out after revenge for the sound beating they absorbed here last year, but this column sees a better Wooster offense rolling to a one touchdown victory.

Ohio State Fares Indiana
The outstanding football game of the week, for this part of the country at least, will throw Ohio State against the Hoosiers of Indiana. In Columbus they are marking off the books the smashing 59 to 0 victory of the Bucks over Fort Knox. The soldiers were apparently both unorganized and slow and no match for the well drilled Big Nine team. So the first big test for the Scarlet and Gray will be against Billy Hillenbrand and his supporting cast.

The brilliance of this junior half-back is above question, and, unless he is injured, he will undoubtedly be the outstanding back in the conference. This year Bo McMillin has plenty of talent to back up his star and the team seem to bear the marks of championship quality.

Ohio State, on the other hand, is not yet considered a definite contender for Big Nine laurels. They are using a large number of sophomores and the experts will be waiting to see them against first class opposition, such as Indiana on Saturday, before they label them a threat. Indiana has beaten Ohio only three times but we will go along with Billy Hillenbrand and pick Bo McMillin's boys to down Ohio State by two touchdowns in a game in which both teams will score.

Cards Change World Series Picture
The sudden rush of the Cardinals to the pennant has changed the World Series picture completely. Before the Card's extended streak overcame the Dodgers lead, it looked as if the Series was slated to be merely a repetition of last year's show. Now we have the Cardinals, the hottest thing in baseball, facing the Yankees who have been coasting along, knocking over the weakest array of teams that the American League has offered in some time.

It is not the same Yankee team that once annihilated all opposition. The terrific power that once characterized that "murders' row" is missing this season. DiMaggio was rather representative of the general letdown as he came down the final stretch struggling to stay above the .300 mark. It was pitching, fielding, and most of all, weak opposition, that carried them to the flag. So it is the youth and fire of the Cards against the experience and confidence of the Yankees.

As this comes out in print, two games of the World Series will already be down in baseball's record book, so any predictions made here could look very foolish. The fact that the Cards could beat out a team that won 104 ball games shows that they cannot be treated lightly, but for me the Yankees are still the greatest "money" team in baseball. When the chips are on the line, some of those seige guns, that have been rather inactive throughout much of the season, will blast out hard enough and often enough to hang another World Championship banner from the flag pole in Yankee Stadium.

Women's Athletics

By LOIS WILSON

The WAA board has a new member, Virginia Beifuss, who is representing the defense council. This council is primarily to stimulate interest in activities among the girls. It has posted charts in each dormitory, on which the girls are asked to check their daily activities. These are recorded for each girl, and the total is filed with the WAA records.

The tennis tournament is progressing. So far the winners of the second round are Joyce Lorimer, A. Ferguson, J. Trent, B. Martin, and Mary McClaren.

Hiking Group Organized

The outing club has organized hiking groups, one on Wednesdays from 3:30 to 4:30, and one on Saturdays from 9 to 12. The Wednesday hikes are planned to take care of that mid-afternoon slump when books lose their appeal, and a few minutes out in the open are guaranteed to stimulate your brain cells. The Saturday morning hikes are for more serious hikers. Occasionally these hikes may include a picnic lunch.

YW Presents Show

The board as a whole is cooperating with the YW girls in presenting a tea and style show next Saturday for the Big and Little Sisters. The WAA girls will model the clothes, and the YW girls will serve the tea. This is an annual affair, planned to enliven an already lively year. It will be held this Saturday in Babcock, at 3 o'clock. Before you forget it, Big Sisters, be sure to invite your freshmen.

Wittenberg will have a two-fold purpose when they take the field against the Scots this Saturday. They will be out to make a successful debut under their new coach, Carl Schroeder, and they will also be aiming for revenge for the trouncing they took at the hands of Wooster last season. It will be the first game of the season for Wittenberg and little is known about the potentialities of their team. The biggest task has been finding a successor to Norm Lyman-grover, their star tail back last season. In going to Wittenberg Coach Schroeder is returning to his old stamping grounds. He was a grid star there in 1927 and 1928 helping the Lutherans to the Buckeye Conference championships in those years.

Paul Finefrock Wins First Voice Football Poll; Notre Dame's Tie Game Fools Most Contestants

With the last echoes of the cheers from Saturday's big games, the ballots entered in the first Voice football poll were all checked and the winners of the first and second prizes determined.

The winner of the first prize of two tickets to the Wooster Schine Theatre was Paul Finefrock, a local freshman who lives at 1135 Beall Ave. The runner-up and winner of the second prize of one ticket to the Wooster Theatre was Anne Fisher, a local sophomore who lives at 409 Nold Ave.

Finefrock missed only the Notre Dame-Wisconsin tie in his winning ballot. His was the most perfect ballot entered. Anne Fisher's second place ballot had two misses. The Nebraska-Iowa game and the Notre Dame-Wisconsin tie. Four other contestants also missed one game and the tie, but Miss Fisher's scores were the closest to the actual scores. The other four contestants who missed only one game and the tie were: Bob Sanborn, John Goshorn, Robert Brown and Hal Grady. These contestants receive no prize, but receive honorable mention.

This week we have six more big games to test the ability of the contestants. All students, boys and girls, have a chance for the theatre tickets for this week. Fill out one and only one ballot and deposit it in one of the conveniently located boxes before 10 o'clock on Friday night with your name filled in at the top. The winners will be announced in the next issue of the Voice and the prizes awarded immediately. So fill in your ballot, place it in a box, and look for your name in the next Voice as winner.

Fifth, Second, Keep Undefeated Records

With the dust settled from the action in Kenarden's touch football league this week, the race for the coveted championship seems to be a contest between Fifth, Sixth, and Second sections.

Fifth chalked up another victory, rolling over Ninth Section Friars 36-0. Captain Bob Sanborn played his usual brilliant game, doing a large part of Fifth's passing, running, and kicking. Two other keymen in the Fifth offense are pass catcher Dennis Kuhn, and Bob Homan. Field general Bob Daley did most of the ball playing for the Friars.

The Sixth Section juggernaut with its best team in recent years continued its victory march with an impressive 12-2 win over the Tri-Kapps of Seventh. Arch Duncan and Dale Hudson do the pass heaving for Sixth while lanky Ralph Wagner and Roger Beck share the catching duties. The speedy Hudson who is one of the fastest men in the league, is a consistent ground gainer.

Roe Benson, Jim Gebhardt, and Perry Narten are the hubs of the Tri-Kapp team which seems to be far below the par of last year's championship squad.

In other games this week, the Second Section team deadlocked Seventh 6-6 and romped over third 36-0. Second presents a well balanced outfit with Captain Ned Netherton, Bob Edwards, John Mellin, and Stan Williams sparking its attack.

A weak First Section squad played a 0-0 draw with Ninth after losing a forfeit to Second.

Carroll Trounces Scots In Opener By a 6-0 Margin

In their inaugural tilt of the season, the Wooster Scots were topped 6-0 by John Carroll's Blue Streaks here, Saturday, Sept. 26. The Streaks and their "T" formation proved a little too tough for the Scots who displayed a sad lack of striking power.

Diedrick took the opening kickoff on the Wooster 22 and ran it back to the 32. The Scots make a first down on two Carroll offside penalties but Bixler of Carroll intercepted a pass thrown by Clay on the Carroll 45. The Streaks made only two yards in two tries and kicked out on the Wooster 30. Wooster drove through for a first down in two plunges but again Bixler nabbed a Scot aerial on the Wooster 41. Francisconi and Kennedy carried the ball to the 30 for a first down for the Streaks. The Scots held for downs and took over on their own 24. Here a punting contest ensued with Wooster taking possession of the ball on their own 38. As the quarter ended a bad fumble set the Scots back to their own 17.

Carroll Scores

The only score of the game came in the second period when the Blue Streaks received a Wooster punt on their own 48 yard line and began a drive that did not stop until it hit pay dirt. Carroll opened its march with a pass, Francesconi to Romano, that was good for a first down on the Wooster 32 yard line. McGrath then picked up 3 yards and Kennedy followed with a run to the Scot 13 for another first down. Here McGrath tossed a short aerial to Francesconi who carried the ball to the 4 yard line. Kennedy plunged for a first down on the Wooster 2 and then McGrath on a beautiful shovel pass from Francesconi scored around left end standing up.

Cooper Receives Kick-Off

John Carroll kicked off, Cooper returning it to the 41. With the help of an offside penalty against the Streaks, Wooster made a first down on the Carroll 49. Renner then fumbled with Carroll recovering on the Scot 44. Kennedy made 4 through the line and a pass Francisconi to Dorsey was good for a first down on the 34. Two five-yard penalties set Carroll back and Eicher intercepted a fourth down pass on his own 37. Carroll held and West punted to their 37 with McGrath returning to the 48. A pass, McGrath to Francisconi was good for a first down on the Wooster 32. The Scots held and Codol punted to the Wooster 6. Again McGrath picked up a first down with the aid of a 5 yard penalty. Carroll held and an exchange of kicks followed with the Streaks taking over on their 27.

The Scots did not come to life until the last period when they made their only serious threat of the game. Eicher intercepted a Carroll aerial on the Wooster 35 to start the drive. The passing combination, West to Stoneburner, clicked on two successive plays to carry the ball to the Carroll 40. Clay then fired a pass to Eicher who lateraled to West, the play going to the 36. On the next play Eicher nabbed a long heave from Diedrick, good for a first down on the Streak's 8 yard line. Here the Scot's attack bogged down and was completely stopped when Cioli intercepted a fourth down pass.

McGrath, Kennedy, Francesconi, and Vendor were the big guns for the Carroll eleven while ends, Eicher and Stoneburner were outstanding for the Scots.

Big Four Asks Cooperation In Achieving Goal

Orient on the Gripsholm and he has had a splendid opportunity to view the work and need of such representatives.

Pamphlets explaining the purpose of the drive were circulated to the students at the beginning of the week. The drive officially began on Tuesday, Sept. 29. It will continue until Saturday, Oct. 3, when the pledges from all students on campus and faculty members will be turned in. Solicitation of pledges among the town students will continue until Sunday, Oct. 4.

The organizations included in the Big Four and whose financial status for the year is determined by the outcome of the drive, are the Y.M., Y.W., the Student Fellowship, and the Sunday Evening Forum. These organizations will be given a share on a comparative basis of all the money in excess of $1200 which amount is given to the work of Wooster in India.

The committee that is in charge of collecting the pledges is: Lenore Dunlap, in charge of all girls' dorms; Betty Steiner, in charge of town students; Bob Moreland, in charge of Kenarden; and Dick Craven, in charge of Douglass.

Texas Petroleum Engineer Speaks To Geology Club

Last Monday evening Mr. Edward Quinby, petroleum engineer and superintendent of the east Texas Tomball oil field, described to about 25 Geology club members the methods of salt water disposal in inland oil fields.

As oil wells become depleted they produce a high proportion of salt water and the problem is to dispose of it expeditiously. Evaporation is not feasible in the moderate Texas climate; draining into rivers is illegal. Recently Texas engineers have developed the method of forcing this undesired brine back into the earth into a porous sand strata perhaps thousands of feet below the surface.

Geology club's annual fall picnic, Dr. Karl Ver Steeg announces, will be on Monday, Oct. 5, at 4 p.m. at the City Park.

COUNTER SHOP-WISE -AT- FREEDLANDERS

It's sweater season again and McGregor still tops the list of men's sweaters. In a McGregor sweater you get all the fine wool and styling that the finest knitting can give you. There is quite an assortment in sweater styles and colors and just as much assortment in price range. Well, let's be specific about these sweaters—you want the lowdown on them not lots of talk.

Freedlanders carries three of McGregor's sweater classics. The REGAL COAT is a nifty looking two tone coat sweater. The front is made of chevron tweed, the war time version of harris tweed, and the sleeves and back are knitted in yorkshire blend. Or if you'd rather, there is a sweater knitted entirely in yorkshire blend, which is the best blended yarn that can be bought. This sweater is called the YORKSHIRE QUINN. Then there's the sweater you can wear to classes, on the golf course for golfing, and under your suits for 'vic dances' with the same amount of ease and comfort. It's an all wool SHETLAND classic that comes in three variations, the cardigan, the V neck slip on and the sleeveless slip-on. Take it from a gal they're mighty smooth looking sweaters. You'll like their prices as well as their looks, fellows. They start at $3.95 for the sleeveless pull-over job and on up to $6.95 for the nifty coat sweaters.

The Arrow shirt company has put out a new long sleeved sport shirt they call the DOUBLER because of its double duty neck. Being 12% wool it ought to be a real blessing to early morning classes when the sun hasn't had a chance to warm things up yet or on a cool fall evening for a Shack or lib date. For $4.95 you'd be glad you owned such a shirt.

Now to top all this warmth off let's talk about jackets. Out of lots of jackets one in particular caught my eye. It was a genuine sheep-lined jacket with a full length zipper and the handiest two way that are convenient no matter what angle you want to attract them. To better even that, they are Impregnable weather sealed and only cost $9.95.

Symphony Plays At Dedication of Karl Merz Hall

Oct. 23, the dedication of Merz hall, will be the date of the first appearance of the Wooster Symphony this year. The group will present "The Elogio" of Dr. Karl Merz for whom the Conservatory of Music is being named. Dr. Merz included this piece as the second movement of a sonata for pianoforte. It has been arranged and re-written for orchestra by the conductor, Prof. Daniel Parmelee.

In addition to those officers listed in last week's Voice, the Symphony has elected George Mulder, publicity chairman; Pauleen Smith, concertmistress; and Isabelle Pearce, librarian.

Eight new violins have been admitted to membership in the orchestra to date: Harold Potter, William Rowland, Cameron Lyon, David Connelly, Marjorie McPhee, Thelma Nelson, Portia Desenberg, Eileen Larimer, Jane Tilford, Ardys Burger, and Ruth Cameron. New violas are, Miss Ruth Ihrig, who has volunteered as viola principal after two years as concertmistress, Joan Huber, Marilyn King, Vera Louise Irwin, and Dorothy McQuaid.

New cellos are Robert Forsberg and Betty Lee Denman. New contrabasses are Dorothy Lowe, Thelma Nelson, and Edwin Good. Trumpets: Charles Palmer and Donna Jean Lowe. Trombones: Joseph Roeder. French horns: Beatrice Hanum and John Yoder. Percussion: Leo Kissel and Clarence Forsberg. Flutes: William Holmes and Joan Davis.

The instrumentation is not quite complete as to personnel, and several names will be added this coming week.

Club Members Present Varied Music Program

Fortnightly's next meeting, Monday evening, Oct. 12, will be a varied program of vocal and instrumental music.

Members of the society who will take part are Dorothy Dunlap, Dorothy Henderson, Jack Strang, Ruth Ihrig, Priscilla Hughes, Pauleen Smith, and Grace Ohki. Charles Sommers will officiate as commentator.

A recital by Chester Barris of the music department was the feature of last Monday evening's Fortnightly meeting.

Griffith Asks Cooperation

Mr. Griffith, assistant business manager of the college reminds all students that locks, lamps, and most repair parts are extremely hard to get because of priorities. For this reason all students are asked to cooperate in keeping all such articles in good repair.

Choir Officers

Choir officers, who were elected last week for the year 1942-43, are George Mulder, president; Priscilla Hughes, vice-president; Betty Steiner, secretary; John Meloy, treasurer; Dick Yoder, librarian; and Barbara Woodward, soloist.

Margaret Rath will be in charge of the costumes, assisted by Betty McPhee, Ruth Mast, Emily Kuhles and Henry Trapp. Ellen Vaugh is the head of the properties, and her committee will be made up of Virgil Fern, Eleanor Hadley, Jean Long, Nancy Peal and Donald Patterson.

The bookholders will be Betty Morgan and Lauralynn Parkinson, and the mistress of the house is Jane Adams.

The first Thursday of every month will be the regular meeting night for freshman apprentices; and the third Thursday of each month for Kappa Theta Gamma. These nights are in accordance with the Student Senate's plan for club meetings. Oct. 1 at 7 will be the first meeting for freshman apprentices.

Y.W.C.A. Inducts New Members; Calls For Volunteer Workers

Induction of new members into the YWCA was held Wednesday evening, Sept. 30, in lower Babcock. All girls are eligible for membership and those who have not yet attended the meetings may still join. In continuation of last year's plan, a special section will be set up for freshman girls and officers will be elected in the near future.

The primary feature of YW work this year will be war service. All girls may work in the Red-Cross room and schedules of Red Cross work are posted on the bulletin boards of all girls' dormitories. Volunteers are needed.

Another project is being worked out at the Wayne County Children's Home where three days a week a group of approximately forty girls provide entertainment for the children. Each girl gives special attention to the child she has adopted as a little brother or sister.

YMCA Coordinator To Address Forum On Sunday, Oct. 4

The Sunday Evening Forum will have the new YMCA Coordinator as its speaker for Oct. 4.

Sunday's meeting, Sept. 27, featured Judge Mougey of the Wayne County Court of Common Pleas, who spoke on the values of jurisprudence and told of the many experiences he has had on the bench. This is the first time Judge Mougey has been back on the campus to speak since his graduation from here thirty years ago.

All students are urged to attend these meetings and to participate in the forum period following the address.

Prof. Eberhart Speaks On Post-War Problems

Freshman Forum will meet Sunday morning at 9:45 in Kauke 201. Prof. E. K. Eberhart will be the second speaker to discuss the general topic of post-war reconstruction. The speaker will discuss this problem from the economic viewpoint.

Writer Complies With Frequent Request, Describes "You" as Others See You

Foreword . . . by the author.

This is an article for, by, and about YOU. So reveal while you may.

If at the beginning of each week, you find the personification of frustration wandering around the campus . . . that's your Feature Writer. Every Monday the wrinkles begin to dig their way into my usually unfurrowed brow, and the ever-present question arises, "What shall I write about this week?"

They say that two minds are better than one so each week I wander around hopefully asking everyone I meet, "What would you like to read about?" And each time I am slapped in the face by the same brilliant answer, "Me!" So this week I am going to follow your advice. I'm going to write about YOU.

When writing a character sketch, it is never amiss to describe the person. Well, you are a blond-brunette with red straight-curly hair. Your eyes are hazel which the blue of your sweater invariably emphasizes. You are the willowy type, but often have been called "pleasingly plump". Your shoulders are broad and strong; I guess that's where you got your name of the clinging vine. You are tall,

Harold Freedlander Speaks on Value of Liberal Arts Course

Mr. Harold Freedlander of Freedlander's department store in Wooster will speak in chapel on Wednesday, Oct. 7, on the topic, "Value of the Liberal Arts Education in the Business Field".

Mr. Freedlander is a graduate of Wooster high school and of Harvard university and was on the debating team while in the university.

Sharp To Demonstrate Lie Detector at October Meeting of Psych Club

All members of the Psychology club are invited to see a demonstration of the lie-detector by Dr. W. L. Sharp at the club's first meeting, Oct. 8 in Kauke 219.

The club, which holds its meetings the first Thursday of every month, has planned for several outside speakers during the course of the year. Present officers are Alice Walker, president; Peg Vance, vice-president and program chairman; and Lynn Lincoln, secretary-treasurer.

Congressional Club

Congressional club will hold its next meeting Monday, Oct. 5, at 7 o'clock in the Congressional room. Dr. Aileen Dunham will speak on the subject, "The War".

Student Senate Announces Result Of Club Reorganization Meeting; New Schedule Eliminates Conflict

The Student Senate club reorganization meeting was held Monday evening, Sept. 28 with approximately 25 clubs represented. In the system used for deciding meeting times, each club was classified as to the number of meetings held per week. Clubs meeting weekly were given first choice. Their representatives drew numbers from a hat, the lowest numbers having first choice for the available after-dinner hours. The same system was used for the clubs having meetings semi-monthly and monthly. Apparent conflicts—particularly the Monday evening hours—are really not conflicts as the clubs having the same meeting times do not have the same membership.

Permanent records of the following schedule will be kept in the Deans' office and in the Senate files. It is hoped that all clubs will follow the new schedule. Numbers in parenthesis indicate the week in the month during which the club holds its meeting. Apparent repetitions merely indicate the length of the meeting, e.g. Congressional from 7 to 8:30.
